

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park.

The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered this afternoon decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet. The murder occurred around midnight.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park. The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

Your quest: to discover who committed the murder and prove your innocence.

YOUR PLAYER'S PROFILE:

Emma Woodhouse (Pride and Prejudice)

Emma is a confident and self-assured young woman, who is proud of her social position and enjoys meddling in the lives of others.

She has a tendency to be too self-absorbed and overconfident in her abilities to matchmake. This results in her often misreading the feelings and intentions of those around her.

Costume: A regency styled dress (looks a bit like a nightgown and bonnet.)

Who committed the murder?

- Lady Catherine de Burgh.....
- Miss Elizabeth Bennet.....
- Darcy Fitzwilliam
- Marianne Dashwood.....
- John Willoughby
- Mr. Bennet
- Mrs. Bennet
- Emma Woodhouse
- Frank Churchill
- Mr. Collins