

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park.

The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

The Murder

The body of Mr. Thorpe was discovered this afternoon decapitated and stuffed in the breakfast room water closet. The murder occurred around midnight.

A church bulletin was found in his pocket and a swatch of hair wrapped in a handkerchief lay beneath him.

The shock of the murder has quickly spread throughout Rosings Park. The details are forthcoming, things are not what they seem.

Your quest: to discover who committed the murder and prove your innocence.

YOUR PLAYER'S PROFILE:

Mr. Bennet (Pride and Prejudice)

Mr. Bennet is portrayed as a witty and sarcastic character who often uses humor to deal with the absurdities of his wife and daughters. He is also shown to be a keen observer of human nature and is able to see through the pretensions of those around him.

Costume: A simple and functional suit rather than a fashionable or ornate one. Which reflects his desire to lead a simple and unpretentious life.

Who committed the murder?

- Lady Catherine de Burgh.....
- Miss Elizabeth Bennet.....
- Darcy Fitzwilliam
- Marianne Dashwood.....
- John Willoughby
- Mr. Bennet
- Mrs. Bennet
- Emma Woodhouse
- Frank Churchill
- Mr. Collins